Dear CBACS Families,

I don't have the words to fully express my grief and devastation at the latest incident of mass violence in our country, the shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas.

I am reaching out to our CBACS families to let you know that here at school, we are working to make sure students feel safe and supported in processing this tragedy. Please know that your children are in good hands with us, and that our team has been working all day to support teachers and students in addressing the events in age-appropriate ways. We also began yesterday morning with a moment of silence to show our support and solidarity.

We know that families may also be looking for resources on how to talk to students about violence, especially violence that happens in school. Even our youngest students are very aware of what happens in the world around them and over the next days and weeks they may come to you with questions. We wanted to share a few resources you may find helpful:

Estimadas familias de CBACS,

No tengo palabras para expresar completamente mi dolor y devastación por el último incidente de violencia masiva en nuestro país, el tiroteo en la Escuela Primaria Robb en Uvalde, Texas.

Me comunico con nuestras familias de CBACS para informarles que aquí en la escuela, estamos trabajando para asegurarnos de que los estudiantes se sientan seguros y apoyados en el procesamiento de esta tragedia. Tenga en cuenta que sus hijos están en buenas manos con nosotros y que nuestro equipo ha estado trabajando todo el día para ayudar a los maestros y estudiantes a abordar los eventos de manera apropiada para su edad. También comenzamos la mañana ayer con un minuto de silencio para mostrar nuestro apoyo y solidaridad.

Sabemos que las familias también pueden estar buscando recursos sobre cómo hablar con los estudiantes sobre la violencia, especialmente la violencia que ocurre en la escuela. Incluso nuestros estudiantes más jóvenes son muy conscientes de lo que sucede en el mundo que los rodea. Los próximos días y semanas pueden acudir a usted con preguntas, queríamos compartir algunos recursos que pueden resultarle útiles:
